Calif. Couple Selected Jaycees' Guests Under Hospitality Plan

By PAT ROE
(Courier Staff Writer)

George Thomas Preston and his wife, Nora, from Daly City in California, are guests of honor today of the Kelowna Junior Chamber of Commerce.

They were chosen—from the hundreds of visitors now thronging the district—to be feted under the tourist hospitality plan.

"If you want to see the most beautiful part of British Columbia—go through the Okanagan Valley," That was the advice they received while visiting Mrs. Preston's parents in Vancouver. They were given it by the tourist information centre there, by gas station attendants and by their relatives.

So they left their three-year-old daughter, Georgina, in Vancouver with her grandparents and set out to motor to the Regatta city.

They describe the journey as like a trip through wonderland, with its scenic beauty and stretches of green parkland.

Kelowna's setting made a particular impact on them as they approached the city from Westside.

And says Mrs. Preston, "We came looking for sunshine, and have certainly found that."

GOOD SERVICE

Both the visitors agree service in hotels, stores and restaurants, here and at the Coast, leaves nothing to be desired. They have been impressed by the cheerful way in which clerks will go to

Belgian Troops Go Into Action

BRUSSELS (Reuters)—Belgian troops went into action in the Congo Republic for the first time today to help Europeans under attack in Katanga province.

The Belgian news agency reported from Elisabethville, capital of Katanga Province, that the Belgian soldiers went to the rescue of Europeans being molested by Congolese soldiers at Kabalo.

It said:

"The situation is worsening moment by moment at Kabalo. Trucks loaded of munitions soldiers have arrived. The rebels have arrived at the Kabalo railroad station and are molesting the passengers."

BOUDOIR BAFFLER

The Shady Lady Has Them Guessing

TORONTO (CP)—The shady lady of Canadian TV created a boudoir baffler that has them guessing.

After a week of disclosures, denials, charges and counter-charges, only a comely 27-year-old Toronto model seems to know whether or not she was a divorcee co-respondent for pay, as she "confessed" to the country over the CBC.

Lie detectors, police, a private eye, a federal cabinet minister, CBC brass and the Ontario attorney-general are among some entirely a-hoax," said Miss Campbell.

Aftermath of a May 26 CBC Close-Up program.

Some of the facts:

1. The CBC broadcast an interview with a woman—her face shaded—who said she was paid $100 a night to pose as a co-respondent in 120 divorce suits. During the show, she was not identified.

NOWLAN ASKED

2. Attorney-General Robertson said his department was investigating the program and three weeks later sought the woman's identity from Revenue Minister Nowlan, who reports to the Commons on the CBC.

3. J. Alphonse Oulmet, CBC president, said the only name the CBC had for the woman was an alias, Mercedes Hunter.

4. Last Tuesday the Toronto Telegram identified the woman as Joan Johnson, a Toronto model who uses the professional name of Joan Campbell. Miss Campbell, a divorcee, said she faked her TV role as a professional co-respondent for a $150 divorce case. Producer Ross Herbert Purdy said Friday he had finished questioning in the case.

ANYONE'S GUESS

Miss Campbell now says she lied on the TV broadcast. CBC personnel say she told the truth on her program.

Miss Campbell said "may my two children be struck dead if I was ever a co-respondent in a divorce case."

Producer Ross Herbert Purdy said Friday he had finished questioning in the case.

FIRE FIGHTERS FEAR ELECTRICAL STORM

Russia Issues Rocket Threat

HAVANA (CP)—The sharp United States—Cuba crisis was heightened today by Premier Fidel Castro's charges of new aggressions and a warning by Soviet Premier Khrushchev that Russian rockets could hit the American mainland.

In Moscow, the Soviet premier in a blistering speech warned the United States to keep its hands off Cuba.

And in Havana, Castro declared he now has at his command "100,000 militiamen with hundreds of thousands of rifles," plus new automatic weapons on the way.

In Washington, U.S. Secretary of State Herter planned to confer today with Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon in preparation for a policy meeting on the crisis with President Eisenhower Monday.

The new tension came in the wake of a sharp cut by the U.S. in Cuban sugar quota and a suggestion of an oil blockade in retaliation against Castro's move in nationalizing foreign-owned refineries.

Khrushchev charged the U.S. is attempting to strangle Cuba with an economic blockade and promised to "help our Cuban brothers" fight it.

In New York, Standard Oil of New Jersey indicated it will consider blacklisting Western tanker owners and brokers who carry Soviet oil.

Castro, speaking confidently on his weekly TV address Friday night, said "justice and history" are on Cuba's side and mistakes in U.S. policy have only helped his revolution along.

"The mightiest oligarchy in the world has lost control, even lost common sense, because of a little nation like Cuba."

Trunk Murder Charge Lifted

TORONTO (CP)—A murder charge against Leonard Ede, 39, has been dropped after a coroner's investigation found no evidence of foul play in the death of Mrs. Marjorie Scott, 36, whose body was found last month in a trunk in Argentina, Nfld.

Police today laid new charges of public mischief and causing indignities to human remains against Ede, arrested in Cleveland June 17.

Mrs. Scott's body, crammed into a small trunk, was discovered by a GMR agent at Argentine June 7 after being shipped express collect from Toronto. The coroner's report said no cause of death other than asphyxia could be determined.

Fires Blazing Out Of Control

SILOUS LOOKOUT, Ont. (CP)—Experienced fire bosses from Northern and Eastern Ontario are being flown here today to help 500 firefighters control 44 forest fires in the northwestern districts.

Officials said hot dry weather coupled with scattered lightning storms are plaguing rangers and no relief is in sight. Lightning has sparked 30 new fires in the last 24 hours and 12 are still burning out of control, the largest across 700 acres of good spruce and pine.

LETHBRIDGE (CP)—A car which plunged off the road on the outskirts of Lethbridge, killing two people, was engaged in a drag race, witnesses testified today at the preliminary hearing of a charge of criminal negligence against Joseph Brooker. The hearing is continuing.

Three Killed 137 Hurt In Sicily Riots

ROME (Reuters)—Uproar broke out in the Italian Senate today over anti-Fascist demonstrations Friday in which three persons were killed and at least 137 hurt in Sicily.

At one stage, two Communist senators rushed from their seats to attack a member of the ruling Christian Democrats sitting across the floor. They were stopped by ushers.

Communist senator Giovanni Bertoli shouted at the government benches: "you're murderers."

A week of rioting already had caused seven deaths, scores of injuries to police, and led to hundreds of arrests.

Premier Fernando Tambroni's cabinet made clear it has determined to prevent street rioting from taking over the functions of elected government.

SPY PLANE PILOT FORMALLY CHARGED

MOSCOW (AP)—An indictment charging U.S. pilot Francis Gary Powers with espionage in the U-2 flight over the Soviet Union has been sent to the Soviet Supreme Court, Tass reported tonight.

Estimate $300 Damage In City Bedroom Fire

An estimated $300 damage was caused by fire Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Travis, 625 Wardlaw Ave.

The blaze, which was confined to a bedroom in the home, was believed caused by a cigarette smoldering in a mattress.

The flames broke out shortly before noon, and firemen quickly controlled the fire.

The loss was not covered by insurance.

Liquor Lounge Permit Issued Eldorado Arms

Hugh Barrett, proprietor of Eldorado Arms, has been granted a dining lounge licence.

Issuing of the permit was made possible when South Kelowna was recently declared a liquor licensing area. In a vote several years ago, the liquor plebiscite was defeated by the majority of people living in the outside areas, despite the fact South Kelowna approved the measure. Rutland, Naramata, Winfield and other areas were entitled to vote at that time.

Mr. Barrett indicated that he may consider installing a cocktail lounge at a later date.

247 Canadians Are Now Living In Congo Area

OTTAWA (CP)—About 247 Canadians are now living in the Congo Republic, an external affairs department official said today.

Most of the Canadians living in the former Belgian territories are missionaries of various faiths and their families. All those done.

They are believed to have registered with the Canadian trade commissioner's office in Leopoldville.

Patrol Aircraft Ready To Help Look-Out Men

By AL CAMPBELL
(Courier Staff Writer)

"All hell would break loose" in the event of an electrical storm in this area, a B.C. Forest Service spokesman said today.

He was referring to the tense situation in forests at this time, following several days of hot, dry weather.

The humidity rating in Kelowna was 30 this morning—considered "highly dangerous" by BCFS officers.

Often the woods are closed in coastal regions once the rating drops this low, but no word has been received here on forest closures.

It is understood the rating was as low as 24 in Kelowna this week, with the Penticon areas experiencing readings of 17.

The forests have not been closed here for several years.

Fire-fighting personnel are maintaining round-the-clock vigilance in the "powder-keg" areas.

Five men are still patrolling and mopping up after Thursday's blaze at Westside, and about 60 are cleaning up at Oyama.

In addition to the three look-outs stationed in the area, patrol aircraft have been alerted to stand by at Kamloops airport. The planes will make periodic patrols here when asked by the Kelowna ranger station. (See additional stories pages 2 and 3.)

A nine-man suppression crew is also posted to this district on 24-hour standby.

A spokesman explained today the hazard is higher than usual due to the heavy grass cover this year. The abundance of grass is due to a wet spring and ideal growing conditions for the cover.

The possibility of lightning fires, coupled with the dried grass makes the situation "murderous," say experienced forestry officials.

Water-Carrying Plane Fails To Stamp Blaze

VANCOUVER (CP)—A glum, was castlest of 227 flying boat specially converted for the British Columbia forest industry failed Friday in its first attempt to halt a forest fire.

The big Martin Mars aircraft, one of four purchased last year by a group of large forest companies in efforts to cut their huge annual losses from forest fires, dumped 18,000 gallons of water from the Pacific Ocean on to a fire near Powell River, B.C.

A B.C. forest service official said the operation had no effect on the blaze but the result did indicate the costly firefighting experiment was a failure.

He said the terrain near Powell River, 80 miles north of here, was too rugged and the smoke too dense to enable the plane to aim its 6,000-gallon load accurately. After the third drop the machine had engine trouble and the operation was abandoned.

Worst-hit area was the Kamloops district where fire raged during a week of hot, rainless weather. At least 50 were burning today.

The hazard also was high in the Vancouver and Nelson districts and was reported extreme Friday night in the central and northern Vancouver Island areas where more than 1,000 men have been left without work as a result of logging operation shut-downs.

Among the worst fires in the Kamloops area is a 150-acre blaze in the Douglas Lake Ranch which was being fought through the night by 50 men and an avenger water-bombing plane.

In the Lilloet area 130 men with 10 tractors were fighting three fires, one covering 250 acres. A total of 430 men were working on 28 blazes throughout the Kamloops forest district, 14 of which started Friday.

ENDERBY COUPLE CELEBRATE 67TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

ENDERBY (Staff) — Robert Cheves Horne and his wife Christian Armstrong Horne recently celebrated their 67th wedding anniversary at their home in North Enderby. Mr. Horne, 90, is a native of Woodside, Aberdeen, Scotland. Mrs. Horne is 87. They were married in Edinburgh.

Mr. Horne worked as a tanner in Scotland until 1911 when he left for Lenore, Sask. From there, he went to Beattie, Sask., where he farmed until 1956. They have lived in Enderby for the past four years with their only son, John.

Legion Junior Ball Team Makes Its Debut Tonight

VERNON (Staff) — Vernon branch, Canadian Legion's junior basketball team will play its first game tonight beginning at 6 p.m. in Alexis Park.

Decision to sponsor the team was made at the recent general meeting. Players are all under 12 years old. Chairman of the project is Ray Colley. A total of 15 veterans have become Legion members in the last month, secretary E. Poole reports. Membership now stands at 860. Last year and in 1958, the Vernon branch won the North Okanagan zone plaque for best results in membership drives. The secretary said the branch is hopeful the plaque will be captured again this year.

Members have voted $100 to help the YMCA.

The general meeting was the last of the season. General meetings will resume in September.

Railway Wage Talks Enter Final Stage

MONTREAL (CP) — The slow process of conciliation in a dispute affecting 120,000 non-operating railway employees entered its last stage today after final attempts to bring the companies and the unions closer together apparently failed.

The three members of the federal conciliation board met for preliminary work on the report they will present to Labor Minister Starr.

Mr. Justice J. V. H. Milvain of the Supreme Court of Alberta, chairman, said Friday he expects to deliver the report to Mr. Starr by the end of July.

Mr. Justice Milvain and his colleagues held three closed meetings with representatives of the unions and the companies Friday to see if there would be any point to further talks.

No one involved would comment on the discussions but it was clear no common ground had been discovered.

The outcome had been obvious before the meetings began, since during the 25 days of public hearings by the board which ended Thursday neither side had moved from the stand it held when direct negotiations opened last November.

The 15 unions representing the non-operating railway employees performing off-train tasks are demanding their average pay of $1.77 be increased by 25 cents an hour.

The railways have refused to offer any increase. They say they can't afford one and that furthermore the non-ops are already adequately paid.

VERNON (Staff) — Weary forest fire fighters have brought two major fires under control.

But they are still burning, and there is a possibility flames may get out of control again.

Hot weather continues to plague the Okanagan. Fire guards have been set up at O'Keefe's ranch, and at Oyama.

The blaze at O'Keefe's roared over 200 acres of timber, bush and grass land. At one time the flames threatened to demolish a small home. The fire was still burning this morning with 50 men on two twelve-hour shifts standing by. Three bulldozers are being used to put up fire guards.

At Oyama, 160 men are working two shifts. Six bulldozers have been directed to the scene. Food, coffee and fruit juices were taken from Vernon to refresh the weary fire fighters.

Some worked around the clock with no rest.

Cliff Dobbin, a Vernon forest service official, commended the public for their "excellent co-operation" during the fire. He stated at no time was there any trouble in getting men to fight the fires. A Vancouver news report earlier said the men were being conscripted off the streets.

HAZARD RATED "HIGH" Cause of the two fires has not been determined. However, both are believed to have started through carelessness.

Officials said today the fire hazard in the area has increased from "moderate" to "high." The forest floor is tinder dry and there are three major danger factors: careless smokers and campers; wind, and electrical storms.

More than 1,000 acres have already been blackened in the Okanagan this year.

The weatherman holds out for no relief from the blistering temperatures. Continued clear and warm with light winds is the official forecast.

Two Injured In Accident

VERNON (Staff) — Two people were injured in a car accident on the east side of Oyama.

Gary Land, 22, of Vernon and an unidentified female companion were reported to be in "satisfactory condition" this morning.

Both were taken to the Vernon Jubilee Hospital. The car is believed to have rolled over after a tire blew out. Damage is estimated at $500.

The driver of the car, Gary Land, is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas C. Land of Vernon. RCMP are investigating.

Triway Air Services Plans Official Opening Next Week

VERNON (Staff) — Triway Air Services, Vernon, have been licensed by the department of transport.

Announcement was made this week by owner-operators Charles Fenwick and Douglas Mac Coll.

Official opening will be next week, probably Thursday. It is hoped Mayor F. F. Becker and Barbara Wolsey, "Miss Vernon," will officiate. An invitation will also be sent to Mayor R. F. Parkinson of Kelowna.

Following ceremonies at the airport, a reception will be held at Vernon Yacht Club.

The company has just purchased a 1960 Cessna 180, and will make charter flights "almost anywhere," Mr. Fenwick said.

Until now, Triway has operated an aircraft servicing business and has aided the local flying club with maintenance of Vernon Municipal airport.

Triway's plane may be chartered for fishing trips. Recently, a party of three fishermen were flown to Keeler Lake, at the headwaters of the Kettle River. The flight took 45 minutes. Within 20 minutes, all three anglers had caught their limit. Overland journey to the lake takes at least six hours by jeep, if road conditions are good.

CAN TRAIN "Feed" flights will be made to connect with Canadian Pacific Airlines in Kelowna, and the Triway plane will also be used for forest patrols, photography and recreational flying.

The licence also permits flying training.

Mr. Mac Coll was a RCAF instructor for 10 years, and since 1955 has taught in the Okanagan Valley independently and for Cariboo Air Charter and in other interior B.C. centers.

Mr. Fenwick has also had air force experience and at one time made arctic flights out of Churchill, Man., for Transair Ltd.

who took this crowd to the Calgary Stampede last year. The youngsters, winners of a contest, were so well behaved, Mr. King says, that he has de-

Port Strike Spreads; Passengers Stranded

LIVERPOOL, England (Reuters) — Skeleton crews catered for hundreds of stranded transatlantic passengers today as a seamen's strike spread through the port of Liverpool.

Officials said some 1,200 catering, deck and engine-room men were out and 12 ships were affected. The strikers said 2,000 were out and 40 ships were unmanned.

Canadian Pacific Steamships today cancelled the sailing of the 25,000-ton Empress of England.

Passengers aboard her since Friday were informed that about 100 would be accommodated in other ships. Two Canadian Pacific polar flights between Amsterdam and Vancouver will be diverted Sunday and Monday to am-plon. Other Canadian Pacific charter flights Tuesday from Prestwick, Scotland, will pick up 150 passengers due to have boarded the liner today at Greenock, in the River Clyde.

The dispute over pay and working hours started Wednesday when four crew members were penalized for playing skiffle music (a form of hot jazz) aboard the 22,000-ton Cunarder Carinthia.

Many of the 250 passengers stranded by the earlier cancellation of the Carinthia's sailing to Montreal were flying from Manchester to Canada tonight in two specially chartered British Overseas Airways airliners. The rest will go by sea from South-

SENATOR KENNEDY... Democratic candidate?

Kennedy May Emerge Democratic Candidate

By JACK BELL

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Senator John F. Kennedy tightened the cord around his rival today as the first convention tally, Senate Democratic presidential nomination neared a climax.

No matter where his opponents turned for support from uncommitted delegations, Kennedy's astute operators already had made their effective calls.

The Massachusetts senator—due to arrive here today—can point to banked-up support in every area still regarded as political open range in advance of the convention's formal opening Monday.

If the platoon leaders of delegations from California, Minnesota, Illinois, New Jersey and Pennsylvania consented to let their delegates vote freely, there seemed little doubt that Kennedy would gather a substantial majority of them into his camp.

These five states could provide 203 of the needed 761 votes for Kennedy's nomination. His bitterest enemies concede him around 600 votes on the first ballot.

OPPOSITION HOPES To keep Kennedy from storming the nomination fortress on the first convention tally, Senate Democratic leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas and other aspirants counted heavily on Minnesota and New Jersey from these five.

Before leaving New York, Kennedy said he is confident he will win the nomination without any prolonged convention fight. He said he had never contended he would win on the first ballot, as some of his strategists had hoped.

SEATTLE (AP) — A huge mysterious balloon, miles high, drifted lazily and erratically all day Friday over western Washington, moving slowly northeastward.

Everybody's question was: "Whose and what is it?" There was no authoritative answer.

Postal Salary Increase Is Termed "Inadequate"

OTTAWA (CP) — Jack Roberts, general secretary of the Canadian Postal Employees Association, said today he is receiving a "flood" of protests against inadequacy of salary increases for postal employees.

Postmaster — general William Hamilton Friday night announced salary increases ranging from $300 to $480 a year, retroactive to July 1.

Mr. Roberts said he has received about 15 phone calls and 25 telegrams from postal employees protesting that the increases are inadequate. He said the main protest is against the annual increase of $300 granted to mail handlers.

Mr. Roberts said Friday night that the association agreed a week ago to send a memorandum to postal employee organizations asking them whether they are in favor of a 24-hour work stoppage. The association, he said, decided not to send the memorandum following Mr. Hamilton's announcement.

Mr. Roberts said the memorandum asked: "Are you in favor of a 24-hour work stoppage?" Some of the telegrams received today, he said, state that the association should go ahead with its original plan to distribute the memorandum on grounds that the increases are not sufficient.

"This question now is up in the air," he said. "The matter will be discussed next week by association officials."

Mr. Roberts will not attend the meetings as he is leaving Ottawa tonight to attend the postal, telegraph and telephone international convention in Vienna.

Stulac Leads In Decathlon Championships

TORONTO (CP) — George Stulac, 25, of Toronto took the lead, with 3,607 points in the first day of the Canadian decathlon championships and Olympic trials Friday.

The Giants, scoring just five runs in their last five games, managed only four singles off rookie Ray Sadecki (3-4), a 19 — year — old left-hander. They got two of them in the first inning, with Orlando Cepeda getting the RBI, while dropping to fourth place for the first time since May 15, 1959.

The Cardinals broke Jack Sanford's shutout string at 21 innings with three runs in the third on singles by Sadecki and Joe Cunningham and Stan Musial's developed in Sweden Sanford's sixth loss in 14 decisions, around 1,500 D.C.

AND THE WALLS CAME tumbling down . . . etc. Well not exactly walls, but a certain individual literally tore down a brick column in the driveway of a local funeral parlor. Impact was so great that a corner of the roof covering the driveway is now lop-sided. Apparently the accelerator of the vehicle jammed while the car was in reverse gear. It's hard to say whether the building or the car came off second best.

IT'S AGAINST MY grain, but there's a Kinsmen-sponsored fish derby taking place today. Don't get me wrong. Kinsmen are nice guys. But I don't believe in fish derbies! There's one character around these parts that figured fishing was poor in Lake Okanagan if he didn't catch 25 fish in one day. That was when the kokanee were really biting. Betcha he'll be out trying to win the prize for the most number of fish.

Another example of community co-operation.

SEEN THE OGOPOGO?

A NEW TYPE of water chariot made its appearance this week. FRED PEACOCK brought it here from Calgary with his wife and family. It's the same as an ordinary scooter one sees at a fair ground, only it's propelled by a small outboard motor which sits inside the cab. The grown-ups are getting as much kick out of it as the children.

WHERE'S MY REGATTA HAT?

JIM THOMPSON, who looks after the distribution of The Courier in outlying areas and who keeps the honor boxes well supplied with papers, passes this story along hoping that youngsters will sit up and take notice. JIM complained that some children are shooting birds, with the result the young are dying in their nests. Case in point this week. Two boys killed a robin. Thompson knew it had its nest in a tree, so he climbed up and took the babies out. He tried feeding them with an eye dropper, but the wee ones died a few days later. If these boys focussed their attention on the Starlings they would be doing the community a favor.

COURIER BOUQUETS were tossed by HARRY R. RIDGWAY of Barcelona, Spain, who returned here for a brief visit with friends. "I look forward to receiving the Courier, as it keeps me informed on what's going on in the valley," Mr. Ridgway remarked. We don't like to brag, but he thought the Courier is producing a "smart looking newspaper."

FLOWER AIRLIFT SYDNEY, N.S. (CP)—Twenty-five tons of cut flowers, mostly tulips, fuchsias, carnations and daisies, were flown from Sydney, Nova Scotia, to here to meet the first six months of the "bait shortage" in the year.

WATER "BOMBERS" ARMED AT AIRPORT

Two Avenger aircraft landed at Kelowna Airport today and were "armed" with 600-gallon water bombs to be dropped on a forest fire at Douglas Lake, near Merritt.

The planes have been used successfully in the past in coastal areas during blazes there.

While smaller than the Martin Mars type craft, the Avengers are still considered effective in controlling the spread of flames.

B.C. Forest Service officials left the "run" from Kelowna was the shortest possible route for the loaded aircraft, which flew here from Kamloops late this morning.

Heavy 'Cot Crop Is Expected Here

The Okanagan apricot crop may reach record proportions.

Harvesting will begin this week at Oliver and towards the end of next week at Penticton.

Carl Stevenson of B.C. Tree Fruits said today that working on estimates it is calculated between 900,000 and 1,000,000 packages will be yielded.

It is hoped the harvesting of yellow transparent apricles will proceed on more or less the same schedule as that of apricots and that they will "be moving shortly."

A big increase in cherry shipments is anticipated as the Penticton and Kelowna districts come into peak production.

There has been a brisk demand for them since movement began to the Prairie markets a little over a week ago.

The opening of apricot and yellow transparent harvesting, coupled with the spreading northwards of the cherry picking, will create some additional employment in the industry. And, at the same time, workers employed on the cherry harvesting, now practically complete in the Okanagan-Oliver and southern district, can be absorbed in the new activities.

Kelowna Dentist To Convention

Doctor T. J. Hackie of Kelowna has been named as one of 10 delegates from British Columbia to attend the 11th triennial Pacific Coast dental conference which will meet in Portland, Ore., July 10-14.

About 2,000 dentists and their wives are expected to attend this meeting. The purpose of the conference is to give western dentists who were unable to attend the American Dental Association annual meeting a chance to meet. The latest developments and techniques in dentistry will be discussed by well-known authorities.

First Spuds Shipped From Okanagan Area

The Interior Vegetable Marketing Board has shipped two carloads of new potatoes to prairie points. The potatoes, comprising the first movement of the season, were sent from Vernon.

The agency, with headquarters here, has already shipped several carloads of cabbage and cucumbers.

B.C. BRIEFS

TRAFFIC PLAN VANCOUVER (CP)—City traffic engineer Kenneth Vaughan, British told the Vancouver Planning Commission Friday the city will be strangled by its own traffic unless it makes a start now on a proposed $340,000,000 freeway network. It would involve construction of a new First Narrows crossing.

HOME DESTROYED NELSON (CP)—A forest fire, believed to have been started by transients, destroyed the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wragge on Kootenay Lake Friday, and burned 10 acres of timberland. Loss was estimated at $5,000.

GETS INVITATION PENTICTON (CP)—Penticton Pench Queen Hallie Smith has been invited to take part in the international rodeo beauty contest at the Chicago Livestock Exposition and Horse Show this year. The winner will receive $10,000.

MORE ACCIDENTS VICTORIA (CP)—The Motor Vehicle Branch reported Friday that 21 persons died during May on B.C. highways, bringing the province's road fatality count for the first five months of the year to 36, compared with 89 during the same period last year. There were 2,003 accidents during the period, an 11-per-cent increase.

Details of Bond Issue Released on Monday

Looking the picture of healthy after spending seven relaxing days in Kelowna, Premier W.A.C. Bennett left early this morning for the coast.

"It's nice to come back home, even if it's only for a few days," Premier Bennett remarked before his departure. He will return here in early August to attend the giant Social Credit "birthday party" planned here Aug. 8.

It was on this date eight years ago that the Social Credit government in B.C. took over the province.

Monday, Premier Bennett will brief bankers and investment dealers on the new B.C. Hydro bonds which go on sale Aug. 1.

Mr. Bennett is expected to announce details of the $25,000,000 issue after a morning session with the financial men in Vancouver.

Most important detail, as yet, unannounced, is the interest rate. While the premier said the hydro bonds would be similar to last year's Pacific Great Eastern Railway issue—they were five per cent—financial advisers were expecting Mr. Bennett to wait as long as he could to get a lower rate.

Advertising for the bonds will start July 15.

Mr. Bennett will return to Victoria July 13. Ten days later he will fly to Ottawa to attend the dominion-provincial conference.

He will be in the east for about a week. After returning to Victoria for a few days, he will then proceed to Kelowna for the Social Credit birthday party.

Cherry Crop In District Ahead Of Coastal Areas

Unlike coastal areas, the cherry in the Kelowna-Westbank district looks like "a good crop of excellent quality cherries."

The horticultural branch of the B.C. department of agriculture says size of the fruit is "better than usual" and maturity which appeared mixed earlier is now evening out.

General harvest is not expected to begin until next week.

The picture is not so bright on the coast, where all tree fruits have set "poorly." This is said to be particularly noticeable among the Royal Anne variety.

Strawberry harvesting is said to be about normal in the Langley area, compared to "good quality" berries now being picked in the Salmon Arm area.

The peak is expected in about one week in the North Okanagan. The warm weather has also stimulated coddling moth activity in the Kelowna-Westbank areas. In addition, the department says rust and European red mites are beginning to appear "in quantity."

VEGETABLES PROGRESS Fall-planted onions are now making bulk and harvesting of the first lots should begin the last week of July.

Silverskin picklers are yielding a heavy crop, with early lots expected to be pulled later this month.

Summer turnips and early cabbage are now moving to markets at a "steady rate."

Bunch onions, radishes, cauliflower and baby beets are also moving at this time.

AIRMAN TRANSFERRED Cpl. Frederick Elkes, husband of the former Vera Lone Newman, of Kelowna, has been transferred from seven Supply Depot, 40 miles north of Edmonton, to the central experimental and proving establishment at RCAF Station Uplands, near Ottawa, the RCAF announced recently.

COMFORTABLY AIR-CONDITIONED

Direct distance dialing—DDD—comes into effect August 2 for telephone users in the district.

It is a fast and efficient service enabling long distance calls to be made directly station-to-station. However, the telephone being called must have a "two-five" number—that is it must be composed of two letters and five numbers.

Example: The Daily Courier's number is PO 2-4145.

To place a call under the system all one has to do is first dial 112 and then dial the "two-five" number required.

Example: To call Mutual 5-3311 in Vancouver, B.C., one simply dials 112 MU 5-3311.

For individual line customers of the Okanagan Telephone Company served by the Kelowna exchange nothing more than the above is needed to complete a call. However, for all party line customers in Kelowna and all customers in Okanagan Mission, Penticton, Rutland, Westbank and Winfield an operator must record the calling number.

In such cases one will hear a quick double tone after dialing, and should then give the operator the full central office name and number of the telephone being used.

The equipment will then complete the call.

There will be no charges in the case of a person hanging up before dialing the complete "two-five" number, or if the number called does not answer.

DDD calls are recorded mechanically, however if the subscriber receives a wrong number the operator will arrange a credit to cancel the charge if properly notified.

There is no charge for an "information" call.

Example: To call Mutual 5-3311 in Vancouver, B.C., one simply dials 112 MU 5-3311.

"Posties" Here Get Increases

Pay increases granted Canadian postal employees will effect 26 men in Kelowna.

The men are letter carriers and postal clerks, who will receive $450 per year more, retroactive to July 1.

"Appropriate" rates of increase will also be granted to part-time employees.

The raises were announced Friday by Postmaster-General William Hamilton, speaking to the Federated Association of Letter Carriers in Trois-Rivieres Que.

A total of 15,758 employees will be effected from coast-to-coast by the salary changes. The increases range from $300 to $480 per year, at an average of 12.5 per cent. They will cost the government $7,341,595.

This, in dollar amount, is the "largest single increase" ever granted postal employees, Mr. Hamilton said.

In addition to the $420 increase for letter carriers and clerks, mail handlers and dispatchers will receive $300 and $480 respectively. No one in this classification is employed at the Kelowna post office.

No employee spokesmen were available today for comment on the pay raise.

They are: Bill Baker, Vic Hadad, Fred Coe, Doug Stranaghan, Jim Hayes, Pete Newton and Art Burch.

The men will join the Kelowna brigade and assist in firefighting in the Glenmore area until the re-organization of fire protection service is completed.

Work will begin on the installation of fire hydrants in the area as soon as they are received from the manufacturer.

The mosquito control vehicle passed through the Bankhead district this week. The spray was said to have been "very effective."

It Will Be Easier To Get Ballot In Next Election

Neighborhood tea and coffee parties for our political candidates during an election campaign have received the green light from the House of Commons election committee giving the Canada Elections Act its first real overhaul in five years. These tea and coffee parties will not be considered as bribing or treating electors to get their votes.

The law will still stand that you cannot carry "offensive weapons of any kind" near a polling booth. But the committee has decided that the archaic words prohibiting anyone from carrying "swords, staves and bludgeons" around a polling booth, was something too far distant in the past, and so have deleted the words from the act.

Candidates and their supporters will be able to campaign along the streets and on street corners through loud speakers mounted on trucks the day before election. This type of advertising has been banned, but the committee has decided to relax the order for those seeking a seat in the House of Commons on Parliament Hill.

There is every indication that it is going to be much easier for everyone eligible to vote to cast their ballot at the next federal election. The polls will be open for a whole week prior to election day. They even plan to use special agents travelling in pairs to track down persons missed in the door-to-door enumeration in urban areas. A voter whose name has been left off the list won't have all the trouble of attending a formal revision and probably lose time at work. He will be able to get his name added by merely making a sworn declaration to the special agents. So away goes a lot of red tape which has troubled many in past Dominion elections.

Nothing is to be done to the Act to cover strong-arm "goon squads" which have been reported in operation on election day in some centres in years gone by. The committee is going to let the police eliminate the characters.

Any candidate to be nominated in future elections will have to start out with at least 25 supporters. In the past he could get away with ten names on his nomination paper. The candidate won't lose any more than his $200 deposit, however, if he fails to poll at least half as many votes as the winner. The committee apparently felt that the $200 deposit was enough to lose by any candidate who also lost the election.

All these changes to make it easier for us to vote, however, are going to cost money. It is estimated that the advance polls will cost $150,000 and the special revising agents another $87,000.

But with the changes that have been forecast it is not likely there will be many complaints about the extra expenditure.

The Regimented Society

Architects of the proposed new political party for Canada, which seeks to attract "liberal-minded people" as well as socialists to its support, certainly appear more socialist than liberal in their thinking, judging by a "discussion paper" released concerning the new party's policies.

In the first place, the "discussion paper" suggests state ownership of all forms of energy, including the peacetime use of nuclear power. This would mean nationalization of Canada's highly-efficient private electric power plants and would deprive the public of all the benefits of competition in the already-regulated utilities field. Since oil and natural gas are sources of energy, the proposed new leftist party would nationalize this segment of Canadian industry as well.

Dangerous to economic progress as this proposal is, it is overshadowed by the suggestion that state control should be exercised over all investment. This is what the party's architects clearly have in mind in proposing as a platform point "public planning and democratic control" of investment and production, including control of the volume of investment and the channelling of investment "into the most socially-desirable projects."

This would be the regimented economy with a vengeance. The talk of "democratic control" of investment should fool no one. Investment is democratically controlled in Canada today by the free decisions of thousands of consumers in the marketplace. Under the policies of the proposed new political party of the left, consumers and small savers would have no say at all in the use made of investment funds. Allocation of capital would be on the basis of what the party in power at Ottawa deemed politically expedient.

The tragedy of it is that planning for the stagnant, regimented economy should be participated in by the Canadian Labor Congress, when it is a well-known fact that the overwhelming majority of union members in this country want no part of socialism.

B.C.-Federal Gov't Heads Are Crossing Up Signals

By ARCH MacKENZIE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—It took years to get Canada and the United States sitting down to negotiate a treaty for joint development of the Peace River for power, which Columbia River hydro and flood control, negotiations which finally started early this year.

Now the federal and British Columbia governments are having trouble keeping their signals straight.

Some informants suggest that the U.S. negotiators might wrap up the treaty—if the federal-provincial front stays glued together.

That is a big if, they emphasize, in commenting on possible progress next Thursday and Friday when the American team will be here for another bargaining session with federal and B.C. representatives.

Some sources suggest that there may be no progress until after a B.C. provincial election federal government would put up which may expect Premier Ben-Hur, it remains to be settled whether to call for September.

Their reasoning is that he wants to avoid having it become a campaign issue. He has been start-reaching agreement on the heavily criticized for permitting most economically-feasible sites.

Wenner - Green plans to develop the Peace River for power, which would cost more than Columbia River hydro and flood control, negotiations which finally started early this year.

One Canadian - United States round of talks has had to be postponed so that B.C. and the federal government could work out differences and some suggest here that in addition to giving the U.S. more room for seeking concessions, the Canadian rift has annoyed the U.S. slightly.

Two main areas have dimmed hopes that the treaty might be ratified by the current session of Parliament, expected to end late this month.

One is splitting the costs for the Canadian share of the $1,000,000,000 program. Although the federal government has agreed to pay 50 per cent, the U.S. has not.

The annual Rutland Rally Day again was a big success, providing a continuous round of sports and midway games for the large crowd.

Hundreds of tons of California apricots are being imported to Canada by a company in Kelowna, in order to offset the curtailed soft fruit production in the Okanagan, caused by the severe winter.

George Peterson, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Peterson of Victoria, died an hour and a half after he fell over a 40-foot cliff near Peace's Point, five miles north of Kelowna.

Mrs. Edith Ella Lloyd-Jones died at the family residence, Bernard Avenue, Mrs. Lloyd-Jones came with her parents to Summerland in 1885, living at "Emout" (instead of "Emout", how are we to know whether they are going forward, by backward?)

Then too a magnate, according to the dictionary, is a person of distinction; but in these days he is so often simply pronounced a "magnet".

While school taxes are climbing, the standard of education seems to be sadly on the decline.

British Pupils Place UBC Second Preference Choice

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP)—When it comes to choosing a Canadian university, British students prefer Toronto, British Columbia and McGill in about that order.

This was indicated during the screening of 35 undergraduates who will go to Canada this fall under a scholarship plan designed to strengthen the intellectual sinews of the Commonwealth.

The British students, who will graduate next month, are mainly from the "redbrick" universities, a term used to separate the newer seats of learning from the old standbys as Oxford and Cambridge. They come from Scotland, Wales and English cities such as Birmingham, Bristol and Stafford.

Mostly male, they are young, bright and articulate, and already know a lot about Canada. In choosing their destination they asked pointed questions about the forestry course at UBC, the advanced reactor at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ont., and the medical facilities at McGill.

SIDNEY SMITH'S IDEA

Academic circles were disappointed that none of the students showed interest in the universities of the Atlantic provinces or of French-speaking Quebec. In the same way, it is understood here that French-language students in Canada are seldom enthusiastic about going to other Commonwealth countries to study, preferring to take their advanced studies at Grenoble or the Sorbonne.

The Commonwealth education plan, which starts this year, is an imaginative, idealistic concept, conceived in Canada and dedicated to the promotion of common background of education and experience is one of the vital elements in the mysterious cement that holds the Commonwealth together.

First outlined by the late external affairs minister Sidney Smith in a Montreal speech Sept. 1, 1958, the project involves a reciprocal exchange of scholarships and fellowships. Each year, some 1,000 students will be at work in the classrooms of Commonwealth countries other than their own, absorbing new ideas and observing another way of life.

NEW APPROACHES

The idea is to "scatter" Commonwealth brainpower through a multilateral series of two-way educational streets, thus facilitating exchanges for example between Canada and Malaya rather than perpetuating the traditional academic route from overseas countries to Britain.

Though it has received little publicity outside specialist publications, the education scheme has moved swiftly in the 22 months since it was officially launched at the Commonwealth economic conference in Montreal. It led to the first education conference ever held by the Commonwealth, at Oxford last July.

and plans are maturing for a second conference at New Delhi in January, 1962.

With its prestige value, the exchange system has done much to stimulate Commonwealth thinking on education. It has helped to provide trained teachers for underdeveloped countries, whose need is acute. For these nations the exchange plan tends to represent the cream at the top of the bottle.

OTTAWA REPORT

High Costs... And Jobless

By PATRICK NICHOLSON

"As far as the Canadian economy is concerned, there are no roses in our garden," a high government spokesman told me as Ottawa echoes to the crescendo of moans by manufacturers.

Prime Minister John Diefenbaker repeatedly tells us about the good conditions being enjoyed all across Canada. "More Canadians than ever before are now working for higher wages and spending more money," he says. That is true. But there are other statistics which tell a less comforting story about Canada, while jobs fail to increase as fast as our labor force.

We are enjoying unprecedentedly high wages, exceeded only by the U.S.A., and total labor income is running 3½ per cent above last year. But 17½ millions of us constitute the total and isolated tariff-free market open to our manufacturers—the smallest such market in the world. And those manufacturers complain that they are constantly losing more foreign markets and even being beaten in our domestic market, through our higher costs.

This is cause and effect. It is also a rising disaster from which only government, management and labor acting in union can save us.

Opponents of the present Conservative government blame it for our present high level of unemployment, with one in every twelve members of our labor force lacking jobs in late spring. The Liberal opposition in parliament is being very ably spearheaded in this attack by Hon. Paul Martin, MP for the hard-hit motor city of Windsor.

The mayor of Mr. Martin's home town, together with the mayors of other Canadian motor cities such as Oshawa, recently came to Ottawa to seek government tariff aid to protect their automobile industries against the competition of lower-priced imports. Many other manufacturing groups, such as those producing textiles, electrical equipment, rubber footwear, and transistor radios, are moaning the same moan, seeking tariff protection which would raise the cost of living of every Canadian family.

Meanwhile, our neighbors to the south can buy in their stores cheaper goods, made by their own manufacturing industries which cater to a home market of 180 million consumers. Our allies across the Atlantic are already at unprecedented heights of prosperity, and are moving fast towards ever better standards of living through the formation of the European Common Market of 160 million consumers, and the European Free Trade Area with 90 million consumers. And out Pacific friends, the Japanese, with a domestic market of 85 million, and the energy to sell their products to the whole free world, have never had it so good. To us in Canada, with only 17½ million domestic consumers for our factories and farms, there is a very obvious lesson in this contrast, which our industrial associations of Colonel Balmis have not yet learned.

Here in Canada, despite 714,900 idle workers seeking unemployment benefits in late spring, we boast of record wages. But at the same time our manufacturers complain that high costs are causing the progressive loss of foreign markets, and even of the home market. Among those 714,900 seeking hand-outs in place of jobs, there were many whose recognized scale of wages has been negotiated by union leaders up to levels so high that no Canadian employer can afford to pay them; and so they cannot get work on their terms.

High costs, short runs, and low productivity are the mill stones around the necks of our industries; thus handicapped, they cannot possibly succeed in open competition with foreign manufacturers catering to huge mass markets.

"RIDICULOUS" SAYS ROBINSON

Wayne Takes Exception To Remarks By Stukus

By CHARLES E. GIORDANO
(Courier Sports Editor)

B.C. Lions' head coach Wayne Robinson has taken exception to certain remarks made by a Vancouver newspaper columnist.

Annis Stukus, Vancouver Sun football writer, said in Thursday's edition of the Sun that Bob Jetter, Lions newly-acquired half-back from Iowa, "temporarily decided to call it quits" during a workout at the team's Kelowna training camp.

Said Stukus "Jetter, the jet from Iowa," almost pulled himself out of the fight Wednesday.

He said Jetter was engaged in a tacking drill when "he suddenly headed for the dressing room on his own and stayed for five minutes before coming back to the field."

The Vancouver writer said Jetter would not talk about what happened.

"RIDICULOUS" SAYS WAYNE
"It's so ridiculous I hate to even comment on it," said Robinson when asked this morning.

"But there is no truth in it," Jetter only asked to be excused for nature purposes and he was," the head coach said.

Robinson pointed out that "Jetter is not a quitter and takes everything that's coming to him."

SHOULD HAVE CHECKED
"If Stukus would have bothered to check with myself or Jetter, he would have learned the truth," Jetter said.

Speaking on a previous column in which Stukus said he felt the Lions would place fourth in the WIFU, Robinson commented "I schools."

had hoped they'd pick us fourth or fifth. That's good calling at this stage of the game."

Robinson said, however, "We still have to play the season but right now the team looks much better than they did at this point last season."

He said the team has a "long way to go before they'll be a good football club" and that is why we're working so hard now.

FULCHER INJURED

Injuries at the Lions camp now.

Lions Plan To Organize Teams In Valley Schools

General manager Herb Capozzi said today that the B.C. Lions team is now working on a plan to organize football in Okanagan Valley schools.

Capozzi, here with the Lions at their two-week training camp, said that if feasible the plan would be put into effect in the four valley cities—Kelowna, Vernon, Penticton and Kamloops.

The Lions' manager said a meeting will be held shortly with the local school board to discuss whether or not such a setup would be practical.

Capozzi said he discussed the matter with Premier W. A. C. Bennett.

Mr. Bennett later told The Daily Courier he is "very, very anxious to see more sports in the schools."

seem to be occurring one a day. Thursday, during the team's second big scrimmage, Guard Bill Fulcher, of Georgia Tech, injured his knee and will be taken to Vancouver. Wednesday Guard Vic Kristopatis sustained a back injury but will be back in action shortly.

There are seven players, not including Fulcher, on the minor injured list.

Robinson said "injuries are the only thing really bothering us in action."

ANDY BATHGATE LEADING FIELD IN OGOPOGO GOLF TOURNAMENT

Andy Bathgate, popular New York Rangers hockey star, is leading the parade in Kelowna's Ogo-pogo Golf Tournament.

Bathgate has a total of 137, seven-under par, after 36 holes, to lead the field of 128 golfers from various parts of the province.

Defending Champion Johnny Russell of Point Grey Golf Club in Vancouver is second with 140 in the same number of holes.

Third is Don Griffiths with 141. Don Day of Kelowna is leading the interior amateur golfers with 148, four over par. Kelowna's Moe Young is two strokes back.

All of the golfers will play their last 18 holes today. The tourney continued 7:30 this morning and should wind up by 9 o'clock tonight.

Kel Nagle Captures British Open Title

ST. ANDREWS (CP) — Australia's Kel Nagle won the British Open golf title today with a 72-hole total of 278. Arnold Palmer of the U.S. was one stroke back at 279.

Nagle won on the last hole after Palmer had staged a late bid on the final nine holes to catch him. Palmer closed with a four-under-par 68 to Nagle's 71.

BASEBALL STARS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pitching: Bill Monbouquette, Boston Red Sox, blanked New York Yankees on seven hits, giving up three walks and striking out eight men for a 8-0 victory.

Hitting: Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinals, broke up 1-1 tie with two-run homer that triggered a 7-1 victory over San Francisco Giants.

The Australian, a one-time lumberjack, hit his second shot on the 18th to within 24 inches of the cup. There was a groan from the gallery of 20,000 when he missed his first putt for a birdie but the par 4 was good enough for the championship.

Nagle's scores were 69-67-71-72-278 and Palmer's 70-71-70-68-279.

Roberto de Vicenzo, the towering Argentine, finished with a 73 for 282 which tied him for third place with Bernard Hunt of England and Harold Henning of South Africa.

Gary Player of South Africa, the defending champion, had a final round 69 that gave him a 284.

Today's round, postponed from Friday because of a heavy rain, was played in alternate sunshine and rain.

Handy Randy Duncan, the all-American quarterback from Iowa who came to B.C. Lions last season amid fanfare and great expectations, is in danger of being "run out" of his spot as Lions' top signal caller.

Presenting the threat is Jim Walden, 21-year-old Wyoming graduate who earned the nickname "the Mississippi gambler" with his daring gambles from any spot on the field in college ball.

Walden, who can run and throw, has been impressive during Lions first week of training here, especially on option plays.

Coach Wayne Robinson said Friday the six-foot-one-inch 185-pound import at the moment is his top quarterback.

The 21-year-old Walden could become the first double-threat quarterback B.C. has had. Except for a brief period when Al Dorow handled the club, Lions have never had a good passing quarterback that could move.

HAS TROUBLES
And while Walden has impressed, Duncan has had his troubles. Randy is the superior passer on drop-back plays, but has not improved his running. To keep his job Duncan will have to be a far superior passer than Walden.

Walden led the skyline conference in total offense on 329 yards rushing and 882 passing. He had an astonishing seven-yard average from scrimmage last season.

Another surprise of the first week of training here has been the play of rookie Canadians. Two of the top prospects are Jim Carphin, a student at Washington last year, and Neil Beaumont, a 19-year-old Vancouver junior grad.

Carphin has a good chance to make the grade at defensive end.

Ottawa Backfielders May Discuss Terms

OTTAWA (CP)—Ottawa Rough Rider backfielders Gerry Nesbitt and Davey West, who haven't yet appeared at training camp, are expected in town in a few days to discuss contract terms, a spokesman for the Big Four club said today.

West, who in 12 years has played with every major Canadian club except Montreal, is on his way from his Vancouver home. He joined Ottawa last season from Kitchener.

Fullback Nesbitt, with the club for two years, has been at his home in Little Rock, Ark.

Sports Car Hill-Climb Plans Set

Preparations are now under way for the annual sports car hill-climb at Westbank Sunday, July 17.

Professional sports car drivers from all parts of the Pacific northwest will be displaying their skill at the event.

"You won't want to miss this event where more thrills and chills are happening every second of the day," said Alice Hobden, publicity chairman of the Okanagan auto sports club.

Improvements in timing and radio equipment will make this year's competition "much better."

Types of vehicles to be used are MG's, Triumphs, Porches, Corvettes, Jaguars and specials of many other types.

Registration takes place at Westbank Saturday, July 16, both in the afternoon and evening.

Wall Leads In Golf Meet

By MILT MacPHAIL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — Methodical Art Wall Jr., headless of the pressure, carried a three-stroke lead today into the showdown round of the $27,000 Canadian Open golf championship.

"I'll just go out and play golf," said the smiling professional from Pocono Manor, Pa., who shot a five-under-par 67 Friday for a 54-hole total of 200, is 16-under-par.

Despite his nonchalance, Wall, 36, wasn't forgetting about first-prize money of $3,500, a nice pay for four days.

"I'd like to think I'll win, but I don't make predictions," said Wall's leading money-winner and Masters champion last year.

Wall's third consecutive third sub-par round—he shot 66-66 in the first two—gave him a three-shot lead over handsome Bob Sneed in third.

B.C. Amateur Golf Tourney Opens Monday

VICTORIA (CP)—Eighty-eight entries have been received for the British Columbia Amateur golf tournament which opens here Monday.

It appears the tournament will be a wide-open battle for three berths on B.C.'s Willingdon Cup team. The squad will be chosen at a B.C. Golf Association meeting in Vancouver July 21.

Defending champion Ron Wiley, who is in the finals of the Pacific Northwest Golf Association tournament here this week, is the only member of last year's team to have posted an entry.

Bob Kidd, Bert Teechurst and Johnny Johnson are not among the 88 who have entered.

Match play will start Tuesday with the 32 low scorers from Monday's 36-hole qualifying test rounds.

GOALY OF CRYSTAL RIVER, FLA., WHO ALSO CARDED A 67 FOR 203.

Another stroke back at 204 were blond Gene Litter of 203, and Sam Sneed, 48, the 1938-40-41 winner of this tournament from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

The pressure caught up with Toronto's Al Balding, who became the gallery favorite after shooting a competitive course record 64 in the opening round and following with a 70. He blew to 77 and out of the title running with a 211.

All alone at 205 was former U.S. Open champion Tommy Bolt, who scrambled to a 70 on a windswept day over the par 35-37 — 72 St. George's club course.

Little Jerry Barber, 135-pounder from Los Angeles, fired Friday's best score, a 68 that moved him into sixth place at 207.

A feature of the day's play was a hole in one by Mac Main of Danville, Va. He aced the 140-yard par — three sixth using an eight-iron and finished with a 71 for 214.

TOP CANADIAN

With Balding fading out of the picture, Alan Johnston, 26, of Montreal took over as the low Canadian with a 69 for a total of 209. That tied him with three others, including defending champion Doug Ford of Crystal River, Fla.

Wall, out in 35, blistered the back nine with a five-under-par 32 that included an eagle-three on the 17th hole.

The cutoff score for today's final 18 holes was 218, two-over-par for the 54 holes.

Included in this group was Torley, who just made it with a 73 following rounds of 73-72. That is the only member of last year's team to have posted an entry.

He was just four strokes behind Johnny Johnson of Vancouver, who finished in Canada. Leonard had a 214 on 71-71-72.

Portland Hits Spokane For Doubleheader

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A dropped doubleheader slashed Spokane's lead in the Pacific Coast League over second place Sacramento to a game and a half Friday.

Cellar-dwelling Portland rose up and struck late in both clashes with Spokane at the Oregon city Friday night. The Beavers won the opener 6-5 with two eighth-inning rallies of a game scheduled for seven innings, and edged out Spokane in the nightcap 3-2 with a ninth-inning run.

Seattle moved into a third place tie with Tacoma by trouncing Vancouver 5-2; Sacramento edged Tacoma 3-2; and Salt Lake hosted and won from San Diego 4-3. The Rainiers and Giants are now 4½ games behind Spokane.

Whitey Ford Back In Form — He's Won Last Five Games

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

It wasn't so long ago that the New York Yankees were wondering when Whitey Ford would get back to form and round out their pitching staff. Now the stubby southpaw is the only starter who has won in the past five games.

Jim Coates, Ralph Terry and Bob Turley all missed decisions in that span, and Friday night Art Dittmar was tagged with the loss as the Yankees were beaten 8-0 at Boston by the seven-hit pitching of Bill Monbouquette.

Despite the loss, New York retained a three-game lead over second place Cleveland in the American League. The Indians dropped their third in a row to the Chicago White Sox, 4-1.

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

The first shutout in the history of the annual all-star baseball game was a 4-0 victory for the National League over the American League 20 years ago today at St. Louis. It was the eighth game in the classic series, and the National League pitchers held the A.L. batters to three hits, while the Nationals collected seven.

Whitey Ford Back In Form — He's Won Last Five Games

dropped their third in a row to the Chicago White Sox, 4-1. Washington rapped third place Baltimore 9-5 and gained a fifth place tie with the Detroit Tigers, who lost 5-4 at Kansas City in 13 innings.

Dittmar (7-5) dropped his second in a row when Boston scored twice in the fourth on two-out singles by Don Buddin and Haywood Sullivan. The last place Red Sox then scored six in the seventh off reliever Eli Grba on four walks and just two hits—a three-run homer by Willie Tasby, and a three-run pop fly double by Frank Malzone. Monbouquette (8-7) walked three and struck out eight, saving his second shutout by fanning pinch-hitter Gil McDougald and getting Tony Kubek on a fly with the bases loaded in the seventh.

Washington scored four unearned runs while handling the Orioles their fifth straight defeat at home. Julio Becquer's two-run double brought the Senators from behind in the fifth against Jack Fisher (5-7). Dan Doherty homered for the Nats, who also scored on a balk by reliever Gordon Jones. Pete Ramos (5-9) was the winner, giving up nine hits in his first complete game in eight tries since Memorial Day.

The White Sox, now 7-4 against the Indians, beat Gary Bell (7-7) with two runs in the first inning. Sherman Lollar's sacrifice fly brought in the clincher after Luis Aparicio doubled and scored as Ken Aspromonte threw wild on a bunt single by Nellie Fox. Frank Baumann (5-4) won his first as a starter since June 5 with a six-hitter.

SPAHN'S PRIDE WOUNDED

No Sentiment In All-Star List

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Is there any sentiment in all-star squad selections? Apparently not for a pitcher — even if his name is Warren Spahn.

One of baseball's surest bets for the hall of fame, the Milwaukee southpaw great was bypassed in the selections this year for only the third time since he clinched a regular job with the Braves in 1916.

And at the age of 39, Spahn doesn't figure to have many more chances for a berth in the annual all-star classic.

The old warhorse with a fistful of records listened intently as the names of the 10 national league pitchers were listed by a writer. He shrugged his shoulders, and was silent for a moment. It was obvious his fierce pride had been wounded.

REALISTIC VIEW
"That's the way it goes," he said finally. "It's an honor to be chosen, but everyone can't be picked."

The "sentimental" choices of sluggers Ted Williams and Stan Musial despite poor seasons came in for discussion.

"I don't know how they could leave Spahn off," said pitcher Lew Burdette. "How many times has he been on the team?"

Miscellaneous Shower Honors August 4 Bride

Around 55 friends gathered recently in the parish hall of First Lutheran Church to honor Miss Lynette Jones with a surprise miscellaneous shower.

At the beginning of the rainbow was an apple tree and the inscription "Kelowna" beside it, with an arrow leading over the rainbow to the Pot of Gold, filled with many lovely and useful gifts — and inscribed — Dawson Creek.

MATCHING REFINISHING

QUESTION: I am refinishing for a long time. Have you any suggestions what to do to prevent an old drop leaf extension table. All the old paint and original varnish has been removed and the wood sanded and made as smooth as I can. It is a dark oak. Is there any way I can give it a reddish finish to match an antique cherry china closet in our dining room?

ANSWER: The sill may have separated from the brick underneath the window; or the frame itself may have slightly separated at the joints. Make a careful inspection and tightly seal any openings or cracks with a good quality asbestos caulking putty which won't dry out and pull away from the brick.

DUSTY BASEMENT FLOOR

QUESTION: The concrete floor in our basement continues to be very dusty. Is there any way to prevent the surface from powdering this way?

ANSWER: Dealers in waterproofing materials and masonry supplies handle a liquid cement floor hardener. It is transparent and will remedy this condition. Or apply a coat of rubber base floor paint. Be sure the surface is free of any grease, grime, soot, etc., before applying finishing.

PEELING PAINT

QUESTION: We moved into a five-year-old brick rancher this past summer, and now notice the paint is peeling in the living room underneath a large picture window. This is the only place in the house that seems affected. Also, if any rain that same particular

RUST MARKS ON CONCRETE

QUESTION: How can rust marks on concrete be removed? ANSWER: To remove rust marks from concrete, try the following method: Dissolve one part sodium citrate in six parts of water, adding six parts of glycerin. Make a thick paste by mixing a portion of this liquid with powdered whiting, then spread it over the discolorations in a one-inch layer. When dry, either moisten the present layer with the remaining liquid, or replace with fresh paste. It may take a week or longer to remove the marks.

PLYWOOD IDEAS

Make Dad A "Man of Distinction"

Have you ever been distressed, watching your husband ignore the pretty serving trays you painted, handing out drinks to guests as though he were dealing cards?

Here's a crafty way out. Show him the three attractive versions above of a cozy family hideaway help him to visualize himself the Bartender of Distinction behind it, and then await developments. Something's almost certain to happen.

The suspended version is as simple as it is effective — a simple narrow wall cabinet and a short plywood door attached by a heavy rope to the ceiling beams. There are colorful nylon ropes on the market now, if you want something more delicate, or you might prefer a heavy chain to fit into a nautical theme. If that idea happens to appeal, here are a couple of further suggestions: In lieu of the bull at the end of the rope, try a small metal anchor; clever little doughnuts of foam rubber would make intriguing sofa cushions, bringing to mind life preservers. You might even consider an amusing name for your "ship" to be applied in felt.

There aren't any plans for house, these cozy corners. They are merely suggestions — a sort of primer for your own enthusiasm. Visit your local lumber dealer and enlist his help on details.

Certainly, none of the versions pictured will take much space, nor do they require heavy expenditure. You are limited only by your abilities in the aspect of salesmanship department when you work on the man in your house.

Our aim is to be worthy of your confidence.

Amos Demands Social Justice

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Boucher

The Prophet Amos told his people: "Thus said the Lord: For your transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof, because ye have said the righteous for silver, and the just for a pair of shoes."—Amos 2:6.

"That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: . . . They lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned."—Amos 2: 7-8.

"Therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them."—Amos 5:11.

"I know your manifold transgressions. . . . Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of host will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph."—Amos 5:15.

Memory Verse—Amos 5:15

Presbyterian Men Elect John Bruce

John Bruce of Vernon has been elected to a second term as President of the Presbyterian Men in Kelowna. The annual meeting of the Kelowna District of the Presbyterian Men was held at the Kelowna Presbyterian Church last night. The meeting was presided over by Rev. D. W. Fox, minister of the church. The meeting was a social affair with a business session. The following officers were elected: President, John Bruce; Vice-President, John Brown; Secretary, John Brown; Treasurer, John Brown; and a number of other officers. The meeting was well attended and a good time was had by all.

Church Centre Seen As Symbol Of Brotherhood

NEW YORK (AP)—On an eminence overlooking Manhattan towers a sleek, new workshop of American Christianity. Within its walls hums the business of many churches. It's The Interchurch Centre, a block-square, 19-story, $21,000,000 edifice, the hub of sundry religious enterprises, the most imposing symbol of Christian brotherhood in the United States, and to many the realization of a longtime dream. The building is a busy multi-church nucleus for evangelism, missions, relief, Christian education and other activities. About 2,000 men and women of different denominations, boards and agencies work in the 18 floors of offices.

Eskimo Beaded Altar Frontal In Church Show

WINNIPEG (CP)—A beaded altar frontal made by Eskimos shared the spotlight with colorfully illuminated Bibles in a display of sacred and historical articles of several religions held here. The exhibition was sponsored by the Altar Guild of St. Michael and All Angels Anglican Church. The articles displayed represented Anglican, Roman Catholic, Jewish, and Russian, Greek and Ukrainian Orthodox faiths. A spokesman for the altar society said the exhibition was intended to give members of the various faiths an opportunity to learn about their own and other religions.

Roman Catholic Missions Expand In Philippines

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal's Bishop Gerard Monagan, who has a strongly Moslem population, there are Catholic high schools — all of which have experienced a Canadian winter in 41 years. Bishop Monagan went to San Antonio, Tex., in 1919 and was ordained an Oblate priest in 1924. Five years later, he and six other North American Oblates were sent to the Philippines to establish a Roman Catholic mission on the Southeast Asia island.

At that time, there were 60,000 Catholics and 150,000 Mohammedans in Cotabato Province.

LAND PROGRAM Today, there are 700,000 Catholics, 300,000 Mohammedans and 100,000 pagans. Bishop Monagan, interviewed during a brief summer visit to Montreal, said the population increase was a result of a land program launched by the Philippine government in 1929. Thousands of Filipinos from northern provinces poured into Cotabato to claim parcels of land. Many were baptized Catholics.

The problem of meeting the spiritual needs of the tremendous congregation was a complicated one during the Second World War when the oblate Oblates were kept in a Japanese internment camp in Manila for three years. When released in 1945, they began an education program to train the predominantly illiterate Filipinos as teachers and clerics.

NOTRE DAME SONG They named their first school Notre Dame of Cotabato, and even borrowed the Indiana University Victory march tune. The first school was followed by others, all called Notre Dame of Cotabato. Notre Dame of Cotabato has 24 high schools and 100,000 students in Cotabato Province. The total enrollment is 11,000 Catholics and Mohammedans.

BAPTIST MINISTER ATTENDING UBC

Rev. K. Inayoshi of the First Baptist Church, Kelowna, is attending the University of British Columbia's summer school. Rev. George Hart of Wetaskiwin, Alta., will be visiting minister at the church here during July.

MacDonald Director At Morning Star

WESTBANK—Ken MacDonald of Summerland is acting as director of the Morning Star Bible Camp at Glenora, which opened recently. The first camp is for teenagers from 12 to 18 years of age. The second will be confined to children between nine and 11. Both are scheduled to last 10 days.

In addition to the citrus fruits, good sources of vitamin C are vegetables such as broccoli, raw turnips, potatoes and sprouts, and corn and red peppers.

Adventist Church Observes Medical Missions Day

Dr. A. W. N. Drutt and Verna Kuhn were principal speakers at the Medical Missions Day recently observed in the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Rutland, Verna Kuhn are graduates of the Okanagan Academy.

Dr. W. Fox spoke in the Kelowna church. The service will be inaugurated in mid-summer by the Jala-krisna, a new vessel of 12,500 tons. She will take on a cargo of fertilizer here and will sail for Bombay, Cochín, Colombo, Madras and Calcutta.

For $75 a month the dog-trainer offers to lease fully-trained Alsatians, with or without handler, to act as watchdogs for industrial plants and warehouses. Others are trained to guard homes. The animals can work alone, patrolling a designated plant area. Or, for an extra fee, a watchman or homeowner can be given a short course in handling them. Mr. Christenson has four dogs trained for work and being leased to three Kelowna firms. Another seven dogs are completing their training. He insists the dogs can do the work of two men.

BRIDGE IS GONE LAC MEGANTIC, Que. (CP)—A covered wooden bridge built 85 years ago across the Tams River at nearby Dublin Range has been torn down. Rotting timbers made it unsafe.

What is it about fishing that appeals to so many men? Is it the tang of the out-of-doors, the salt spray, the play of the reel — or is it a part of that age-old challenge of pitting oneself against the forces of nature?

Probably, it is mostly the challenge, for man is forever excited by a dare. Yet, while life is full of challenges, all of them are not fun. When it comes to meeting the greater tests successfully, you need a lot more than a fishing pole. Then it is that Faith comes into its own; then it is that the teachings of the Church are put into practice.

Don't walk by your church next Sunday — walk into it. Equip yourself for your own spiritual future now.

Loosen That Girdle Before It Kills You

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Loosen that girdle, Madam, when you sit down for a spell. It might be a good idea also to duff those garters.

For the rubber girdles and circular garters that many of you women wear can interfere with the normal circulation of the body's blood. And this could lead to the formation of harmful blood clots in the circulatory system.

TYPE OF GIRDLES

I'll have to admit that my own information on the type of girdles that women wear these days is rather limited. However, Dr. T. Foley of Cornell University Medical College apparently has kept up with these fashions.

He reports that the rubber girdles are designed for women to wear while standing. None of them, he says, is designed for the woman when she sits down.

CLOTS CAN FORM
Thus, if you women sit for hours on end that's a puny thrombophlebitis, I must explain, is the formation of blood clots in the extremities.

And blood clots are a major cause of deaths in this country. By blocking off portions of the circulatory system, they prevent a normal supply of nutrient blood from reaching vital organs and tissues.

Thrombophlebitis causes pain

Opening lead—queen of spades.

Safety plays are a law unto themselves. Their form is so varied that no textbook ever has been, or will be, devised to take full care of this extraordinarily large family. The best way to learn to deal with safety plays is not to try to memorize them, but rather to try to understand how and why and when they are used.

Examine the club holding in this hand. Declarer sees that there is no difficulty making a three trump if he finds the adverse clubs divided 3-2. He can simply give up a club in suit case and make nine tricks, consisting of four clubs, two spades, a heart and two diamonds.

This being the case, declarer turns his attention to the possibility that the clubs are divided 4-1. It is this approach to a hand that is associated with the safety play. Declarer does not assume a normal break but an abnormal one, and then puts his mind to work to enter not only to the expected division but also the unexpected division.

He sees that if East has four clubs, regardless of what their composition, the contract cannot be made by any means of play. Such a case he dismisses from further consideration because there is nothing he can do about it.

He then assumes that West has the four clubs. This may occur with East having the singleton Q, J, 9, 8, or 5. Where East has the Q, J, or 5, again the contract is doomed. West has two sure club tricks and nothing can be done about it.

So South concentrates on those 4-1 breaks which he can control so that he loses only one club trick. These consist of the hands in which East has the singleton nine or eight.

Accordingly, after winning the spade lead with the ace, he plays the ten of clubs. This turns out to be the winning play in that actual hand. West covers with the jack. Dummy's king wins and a low club is returned to the seven. West is kaput. He cannot desist from a club in suit

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW
Be careful in personal relationships now. Some persons will be antagonistic and emotional and it will be up to you to avoid unpleasantness. Don't count too much on social functions but, in your spare time, plan for the future—especially where property matters are concerned.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY
If tomorrow is your birthday, the year ahead promises much in the way of achievement if you are patient and willing to adapt yourself to new conditions in your personal and business affairs. You may have to try harder to co-operate with others if you would attain worthwhile goals. But you can accomplish a great deal in August, November and early December—if careful not to antagonize associates in business circles and partnership relationships.

Personal affairs will also need some extra attention. Do not become involved with others in monetary dealings—especially during the current month and September. And do avoid both risk and extravagance during late December.

January should bring fine gains in all phases of your life, starting you off well in 1961. Look for an enjoyable trip in August; for good romantic aspects in August and October.

A child born on this day will be of a sensitive nature, but may have to curb a tendency toward being impressionable.

THE DAY AFTER TOMORROW
Monday's aspects suggest control of the emotions and caution in personal dealings. Don't fret over delays and circumstances beyond your control. Instead, follow routine procedures and take it easy!

FOR THE BIRTHDAY
If Monday is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that, while your successes this year may not be spectacular, they can be—with your help—of the lasting type. Some fine planetary aspects—notably in August, October and January—govern business and financial affairs but you, of course, will have to put forth your best efforts and use good judgment in order to benefit by them.

Be careful in personal relationships, however—especially during July and September. Some stress in domestic and/or social circles is possible then and it will take monetary dealings—especially during the current month and understanding to offset it. It can be done, however, with you the winner in the long run. If single, you should find August, October and early December fine for romance, and all born under this Sign will have good aspects for travel in August and January. Look for some good news in the latter month.

A child born on this day will be keen-minded and highly principled and endowed with great stick-to-it-iveness.

and swelling. In really severe cases, gangrene might result. Or traveling clots may be set loose to travel to the brain, the heart or the lungs.

Persons who lead a sedentary life or who lie in bed for long periods of time are more subject to trouble from blood clots than are those who are active every day. The reason for this is obvious: the decreased rate of blood circulation increases the possibility of blood clots being formed.

OLDSTERS MORE VULNERABLE

Older persons who spend most of their time sitting in chairs are especially vulnerable to thrombophlebitis, again because the pressure on the legs, caused by the chair, tends to restrict circulation. And stagnant blood tends to clot.

Certain diseases such as heart failure, diabetes, arthritis, atherosclerosis and leukemia also favor the production of blood clots.
